TO : Director of Training

DATE: 16 March 1970

FROM : Chief, School of International Communism

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report No. 7
9 - 13 March 1970

1. In order to stimulate interest and, it is hoped, on behalf of good pedagogy [REDACTED] introduced a pre-test on the first morning of the current Introduction to Communism. This is the first time we have used this device -- although the possibility has been discussed frequently. The class -- having been assured that this was in no sense an evaluation tool -- appeared to enjoy it and also judged it as quite useful to them personally. One of the questions asked them to draw free hand maps of Europe -- including countries -- and of the USSR -- including republics. Some of the results were truly revelations!

2. We received an emergency call from the [REDACTED] late in the week asking us to provide two days of training to a [REDACTED] visitor -- on 16-17 March. His scheduled briefings by CS officers had fallen through at the last moment. We will be able to accommodate one and a half days of the request.

3. [REDACTED] met with officers of the [REDACTED] to work on a detailed program for his five week TDY to [REDACTED]. He has the advantage of having been there previously and will apparently be able to use one or two members of the previous group to assist him during the program. He departs sometime during the first week in April.
